

Sprint and Cox cable each want $40/month for wireless internet service. Direcway wants $60/month. This is too expensive! There is not enough competition. The cell towers in Sierra Vista are owned by Sprint. They lease bandwidth at outrageous fees and monopolize the area by not allowing Verizon and Cingular to erect towers.